FOREWORD . . .

The '69 edition of the COMET takes you "THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS" to recapture some of those fond memories collected from the year's happenings and activities. We have tried to reflect your faces, moods, actions, efforts, and events through the use of pictures and copy.

We respectfully submit the '69 COMET to you, and hope that you derive many hours of pleasure from its contents.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

ADMIRATION

We, the Yearbook Staff, DEDICATE the '69 COMET to the Armed Forces serving in Vietnam, those who have fought and returned home, and those who lost their lives fighting for this worthy cause.

Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace
Under Thy wings.
Make all the nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings.

PARTICIPATION

OFFICERS: Shirley Vogt, Treas., Peg Ley, Pres., Mary Ploessl, V. Pres., Pat Kirschbaum, Sec., Mrs. Barton, Advisor.

The Cassville chapter of FHA consisted of 98 future homemakers.

The year started out with a winning float in the organizational float competition in the Homecoming parade. In November, a Fall Rally was held which had the theme "Jobs, Careers, and You." At Christmas time, a party was enjoyed with the FFA and the Industrial Arts Club. FHA had the concessions for the Annual Invitational Wrestling Tournament which involved skill in planning food for many people.

In March, the Freshmen were initiated and a floral arranging demonstration was given. In April, a style show was presented with the members being the models, wearing the clothes they made. To end the 68-69 year, a trip was taken in the spring.

Industrious Seniors tried new recipes.

OFFICERS: Steve Retallick, Stan Hampton, Steve Ploessl, Joe Schauff, Terry Hess, Mr. Wehler, Advisor.

FFA initiated nine Freshmen to bring total membership to 41. Several chains of swine and beef were increased during the year. The annual Banquet held on March 31 was a great success. Steve Ploessl was appointed as a Junior Board Director to the Wisconsin Pork Producers Association. Terry Hess was appointed as a Junior Board Director for the Grant-Crawford Co-op while Steve Klein was appointed alternate. Terry Hess also won the district speaking contest. The chapter also hopes to have signs displayed on the three entrances to Cassville, promoting FFA.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB "LEARNING TO LIVE IN A TECHNICAL WORLD"

Cassville High School's Industrial Arts Club is a member of the national association, AIASI, the American Industrial Arts Student Association. We are the 5th club nationally. This club has 3 purposes, and they are to promote (1) leadership, (2) friendship, and (3) service, within the club membership. The club's motto is "learning to Live in a Technical World." It is hoped that the club will contain some of our future industrial leaders.

The off-set machine presented a challenge.

"If I had a hammer . . ."

Viola Breuer demonstrated her balancing skill.

GAA SPONSORED ACTIVITIES FOR KEEPING PHYSICALLY FIT

The Girl's Athletic Association was re-established once more at C.H.S. There were approximately 50 members in GAA. The officers for the organization were: President, Peggy Ley; Vice-President, Colleen Kowalski; and Secretary-Treasurer, Beth Koehler.

For excitement, the club had volleyball, ping pong, basketball, and bowling tournaments. The teams competed among themselves and also against neighboring schools.

This is really fun, kids.

WITH BOOKS CAME A BETTER TOMORROW

The "Library Staff" offers its service to students who come to the library for a quiet place to study. The "Student Assistants" help at the desk with routine duties. For recreation, parties were held with volleyball as a highlight. Members of the club attended the SWASL Conference at Dodgeville and the State Conference at Horicon. The "Women's Club" of Cassville gave a scholarship to Janet Esser for the 1969 Workshop at Madison.

Barb Frederick, Collette Kowalski, Janet Dietrich, Sharen Dietrich, Captain; Miss Gutknecht, Advisor; Deb Klauer. Absent: Patty Davidson, alternate.

Enthusiastic start to a victory.

Anguish of defeat.

The cheerleaders led a spirited student body at football and basketball games, pep rallies and assemblies, after the introduction of pyramids, splits, cartwheels, round-offs, and dance routines to various cheers. They made pep signs and bulletin boards for both home and away games, and were responsible, in part, for Parent's Night and decorations for the Athletic Banquet. It proved to be a year of hard work and sore muscles!

Glassmaker, F. Mumm, M. Schauff, P. Udelhoven, S. Brouillard, S. Mellon.

The CHS Pep Club, a new organization this year, boasted a membership of approximately 100 members. The year's activities included selling pom-poms, sweaters, and creating spirit. They also purchased the corsages for Parent's Night and made signs to take to the away games. They boosted school spirit at every opportunity and backed the teams through both victories and losses. They encouraged good sportsmanship at every game.

CREATIVE DRAWING, ORIGINAL WRITING, AND LONG HOURS PRODUCED THE COURIER

The Comet Courier Staff of '69 was hard-working, industrious, and eager to report the latest news of C.H.S. The introduction of off-set printing and the originality of art designs contributed to the success of the school paper. The 26 members of the staff published class, organizational, and office news. Features included editorials, classified ads, Senior and faculty interviews, and many other student attractions. Under the direction of Mr. Starr, our advisor, the Courier Staff spent many long, tedious hours preparing copy sheets and masters for Myron Bartels and Jim Harpin to print.

Editor, Deb Schaal, and Mr. Starr.

The staff at work!

The diligent workers.

The terms layouts, cropping, bleeding, copy, picture schedules, proportional scales, deadlines, measurements, and headlines became very familiar to the 25 members of the yearbook staff. To begin the long process of producing the COMET, the co-editors attended a publications workshop in Platteville. They acquired some helpful ideas in editing a yearbook. The staff worked very diligently to meet the five deadlines scheduled throughout the year. The COMET is distributed in late summer in order to include the activities occurring at the end of the school year.

THE MARCHING COMETS

CONCERTS AND PARADES

DRUM MAJOR
Bill Benish

The Comet Band fulfilled a rigorous schedule which included marching at Platteville Dairy Day; WSUP Homecoming, Platteville; Lancaster Harvest Festival; Potosi, Bloomington and Cassville Homecomings; and the Memorial Day program. The Concert Band played for the Veterans' Day program and the Christmas and Spring Band Concerts. The entire band presented the Spring Band Concert for a Cassville audience. Several members of the band were selected for "All-Star" Band which was held at Iowa Grant. The Solo and Ensemble Contest involved a large number of students in different solos, duets, trios, quartets, sextets, and ensembles. The year was one of hard work and strenuous participation on the part of both students and director, Mr. Klauer.

ACTING WAS THEIR BUSINESS

The Drama Club, with the assistance of several members of the student body, presented the all-school play, "The Mouse that Roared". Under the direction of Mrs. Benish and Mr. Starr, and through the abilities of the leading characters, the play was a huge success. The Drama Club was dedicated to making better speakers and actors, with more assurance that they were doing a job well worth the recognition they received.

OFFICERS: Mr. Starr, Leitha Zimmer, Mrs. Benish, Sharen Dietrich, Deb Klauer, Steve Bernhardt.

DEBATE ORGANIZED AT CHS

The Debate Club was newly organized during the 1968-69 school year. The question was: RESOLVED: That the United States should establish a system of compulsory service for all citizens. The students traveled to various other schools and observed the method of presentation. Their season was successful since the teams won fifty per cent of their debates.

STUDENT COUNCIL ENLARGED AT CHS

A new and larger Student Council discussed problems and events at C.H.S. when delegates from school organizations were permitted to attend and voice their opinions.

One of their most enthusiastic programs provided noon recreation for all classes. This consisted of card tables and ping-pong tables set up in the main hall for student use.

They directed many extra-curricular activities and maintained the efficient atmosphere of Cassville High School.

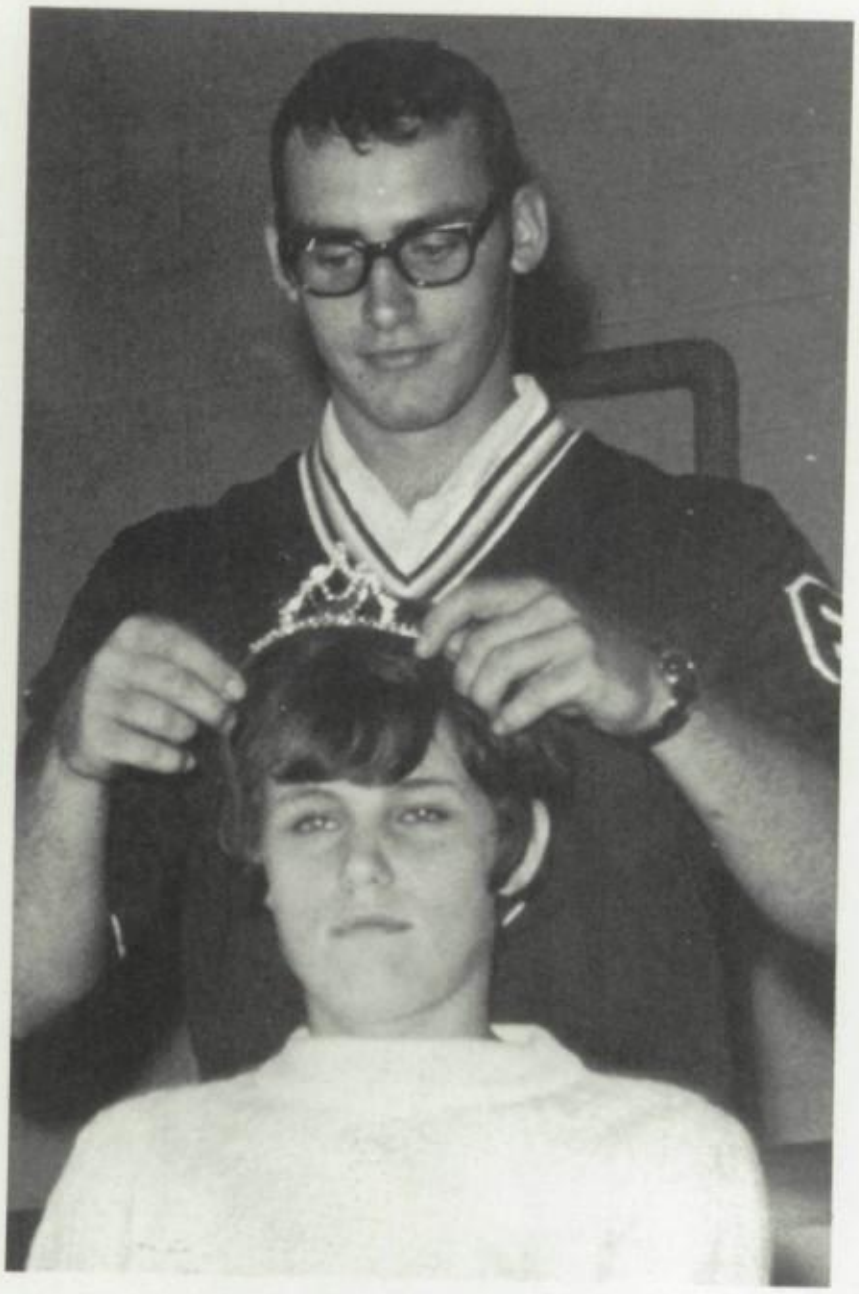
JUBILATION



King Denny crowned Queen Peg.

Rainy weather prevented the traditional Thursday night bonfire rally, but indoor activities promoted Homecoming enthusiasm. Humorous skits, presentation of the court, and the crowning of Queen Peg Ley by King Dennis Brouillard climaxed the evening.

HOMECOMING '68 INCLUDED STUNT NIGHT,

'68 THEME "CAMPAIGNING FOR A VICTORY"

Juniors capture 1st place in float competition.

The following afternoon was clear and sunny for participants of the Homecoming parade. Numerous floats and bands captured a record-breaking crowd.

A 6--0 score provided an exciting Homecoming victory for the Comets.

Dancing to the music of The Ruins brought a memorable end to Homecoming festivities.

Comets blocked the touchdown.

Court in the SPOTLIGHT.

"MAGIC MOMENTS" PROM CREATED A MAGIC EVENING

"Magic Moments" set the spirited and romantic mood for the '68-69 Prom. Beautiful decorations and lovely music, provided by the Paul Hemmer Orchestra, created an enchanting atmosphere. Suspense reigned supreme as the Prom Court was presented in a grand march. Rob Vogt and Colleen Kowalski were announced as second runners-up; Doug Uppena and Kathy Bartels, first runners-up. Enthusiasm mounted as Bob Ploessl and Collette Kowalski were announced King and Queen of the '68-69 Prom. The queen was given a bouquet of red roses, and the entire court danced "their dance."

The evening will be remembered as a successful event, and will be placed alongside other collected memories. And so, another Prom at CHS slipped into the past.

GRADUATION DAY

We have walked through THE HALLS OF CHS many times, but for SENIORS, the end has come. GRADUATION DAY will take us through the halls for the last time. Of course, we shall be able to return to our school, but only as a visitor--a stranger. We will only know THE HALLS OF CHS for the few moments when we grasp a memory. May we not be too proud to humble ourselves to thoughts of days gone by. The older we grow, the more mellow will be the remembrance of THE HALLS OF CHS.

Friends, relatives, and teachers passed through the receiving line to congratulate the graduates after the ceremony.

GRADUATION—THE END

We, the Seniors of 1968-69, entered Cassville High as Freshmen on August 25, 1965. There were 61 of us. Mr. Slaman and Mr. Ibenger were class advisors; Beth Koehler was President; Debbie Wood, Vice-President; Sharon Dietrich, Secretary; and Steve Bernhardt, Treasurer. Our Homecoming representative was Debbie Wood and her escort was John Schmidt. Our float "We'll Mash 'em with Courage," didn't do too well, but our window display placed second. In the middle of the year, Candy Cutter joined our happy little group. So ended our Freshmen year at grand ole C.H.S.

We outgrew the name "Frosh" and realized we were Sophomores. This was a year full of growing pains and inbetween feelings. Debbie Wood moved away, and Joanne Eckstein became a part of us. The advisors were Mrs. Davis and Mr. Barton. The class officers for the year were John Schmidt, President; Steve Bernhardt, Vice President; Sharon Dietrich, Secretary; and Pat Kirschbaum, Treasurer. Beth Koehler was our Student Council representative. The Homecoming float "Confucious Say: Victory" won first prize, and the skit brought a first place to add to our collection. Beth Koehler and her escort Donnie Kauffman represented the class on the Homecoming court. Our Sophomore year proved to be a successful and exciting year.

In August 1967, 62 members returned to school ready to face a bright future. We worked hard on studies and were rewarded with good grades and fulfilled expectations. Doris Pauley, Pat Bulman, and Bruce Bossert left us, but we were delighted to have Jayne Ackerman and Helen Worsham become a part of our class. Miss Palskill and Mr. Law were the class advisors; Steve Bernhardt, President; John Schmidt, Vice-President; Debi Schaal, Secretary; and Deb Klauer, Treasurer; Sharon Dietrich and Kevin Martin represented the class on the Student Council. The Homecoming float with the theme "Nothing Stops Us On The March" won second place. Pat Kirschbaum and her escort Steve Ploessl were members of the Homecoming court. In November, we were glad to receive our class rings--after waiting patiently for them. The Junior Prom, which was the best Cassville High ever produced, was a big success. The theme was "Grecian Gardens" with music provided by the dance band, "The Professionals." King John Schmidt and Queen Joanne Eckstein reigned over the gala event. John Schmidt was chosen "Badger Boy" and Sharon Dietrich was chosen "Badger Girl." Sharon Dietrich received the "spoon" and our busy Junior year at C.H.S. ended.

In the fall of 1968, we returned once again to C.H.S. to complete our education with the cry "Seniors at Last" on our lips. We kept repeating this phrase as if it held some kind of magic. It hardly seemed possible that four years had faded into the past and this was our last year. Little things took on significance--each ball game, each party, each club meeting became a special occasion. We attended each event with that key phrase "This is our last" . . . There were 58 members in our class, Kathy Radke and Rick Kauffman having left us. We joined in with enthusiasm at all the long awaited "senior activities." Mr. Morley, Mr. Okey, and Mrs. Brown were the class advisors; Joe Schauff was President; John Schmidt, Vice-President; Beth Koehler, Secretary-Treasurer; Steve Bernhardt and Candy Cutter served on the Student Council. In the first few months we were sorry to see Nick Adrian, Mike Adams, and Jackie Miles leave our class. The Homecoming float "Racing to the Polls" tied for second place; our skit also received first place. King Dennis Brouillard and Queen Peggy Ley reigned over the glorious Homecoming events, with the Senior representatives being Pat Kirschbaum and her escort Steve Ploessl. At the contest, Deb Klauer received an "A" rating, and Jim Harpin received a "B" rating. Steve Ploessl was elected as a FFA Board Member to the Pork Producers Association of Wisconsin. Sharon Dietrich and Linda Bown topped our class scholastically as Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively. Following these students academically were (in order of their rank): Peggy Ley, John Schmidt, Louise Turner, Carol Rauch, Pat Kirschbaum, Deb Klauer, Beth Koehler, Marcia Adrian, Helen Worsham, and Joe Schauff. trip, we finally decided to go to Galena, Illinois to Chestnut Lodge. On May 7, we took our greatly anticipated trip. We went swimming, horseback riding, and played miniature golf and pool. We also had a dance in the evening. The trip was considered a very memorable one by all.

Suddenly before we realized it, Graduation was at last upon us, and our Senior year had come to a close. We were ready for that final step out of the halls of C.H.S. Nothing could be recaptured, and all we had left were precious memories.
